

Pavel Shilo
Higher School of Economics in Saint Petersburg

Pécs, 30th April 2014

Dear Professor Shilo,

it gives me great pleasure to officially express my appreciation for your participation on the International Teaching Week organised by the Faculty of Business and Economics, University of Pécs between 22nd and 24th April 2014. Your active contribution in delivering guest lectures on our Leadership and Management of International Business course and your active participation on the academic plenary discussing the importance of developing entrepreneurial skills in business education had a significant impact on our event. I hope you not only enjoyed participating on our event but it also brought personal benefit for you, too.

I am looking forward to welcoming you back at the Faculty of Business and Economics, University of Pécs next time.

Sincerely yours,

Krisztián Szűcs, PhD
Vice-Dean
Faculty of Business and Economics
University of Pécs