

Workshop on Mental Health Economics and Sociology

HSE Centre for Health Economics, Management and Policy (CHEMP)

27th May 2016

10.30 – 16.00

Venue:

Saint Petersburg, HSE University Saint Petersburg, 3A Kantemirovskaya Street, room 339

- 10.30 – 10.50: Welcome and Introduction to Mental Health research at CHEMP: challenges, opportunities, networks, methodologies, data (Christopher Gerry (HSE))
- 10.50 – 11.40: Mental health care research in Czech Republic: reforms and deinstitutionalisation (Dr Petr Winkler, National Institute of Mental Health, Czech Republic and King's College London, UK)
- 11.50 – 12.40: Evidence based strategies to reduce stigma and discrimination (Dr Sarah Evans-Lacko, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK)
- 12.40 – 13.40: Lunch (HSE 1st floor canteen)
- 13.40 – 14.30: Population mental health: a macro-sociological approach (Dr Piet Bracke, Ghent University, Belgium)
- 14.40 – 15.30: Research in action. Mental health care service in Russia from users' perspectives: questions, protocols, prospects (Svetlana Kolpakova, HSE University St. Petersburg, CHEMP)
- 15.30 – 16.00: Closing discussion / future plans

Registration: there is no charge to attend the event but registration is essential. To register for the event please contact the HSE CHEMP Manager, Svetlana Sverchkova (s.sverchkova@hse.ru) using the subject header 'REGISTRATION FOR MAY 27 WORKSHOP'.

Refreshments/lunch: refreshments (coffee/tea/water) will be available in the room throughout the day and lunch will be provided for all registered attendees in the HSE canteen.