

International Multidisciplinary Conference 'Health Behaviours: tobacco, drugs and diet'

HSE Centre for Health Economics, Management and Policy (CHEMP)

20th April 2017

12.30 – 18.00

HSE University Saint Petersburg, room 346, 3A Kantemirovskaya Street, Saint Petersburg

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 12.00 – 12.30 | Coffee and registration |
| 12.30 – 12.40 | Welcome and introduction to conference |
| 12.40 – 13.30 | 'HIV, HCV and other risks associated with hard drug use among young drug users in St. Petersburg, Russia (qualitative pilot study)' (Peter Meylakh, HSE St. Petersburg, Centre for Health Economics, Management and Policy) |
| 13.30 – 14.00 | 'Are we what we eat? Food sanctions and the consequences for the health and diet of the Russian population.' (Margarita Gladkaya, Student research intern, HSE St. Petersburg, Centre for Health Economics, Management and Policy) |
| 14.00 – 14.50 | 'Soviet Anti-Tobacco Campaigns in Global Perspective.' (Professor Trisha Starks, Department of History, University of Arkansas, USA) |
| 14.50 – 15.30 | Refreshments |
| 15.30 – 16.20 | 'Tobacco in times of transition - the case of Poland' (Mateusz Zatonski, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, UK) |
| 16.20 – 17.10 | Cigarette demand and the (non) effects of rising prices: an econometric study (Diana Quirnbach and Professor Christopher J Gerry, HSE St. Petersburg, Centre for Health Economics, Management and Policy) |
| 17.10 – 17.40 | The effectiveness of the current anti-smoking legislation in Russia? A qualitative case study (Viktoria Poltoratskaya, Student research intern, HSE St. Petersburg, Centre for Health Economics, Management and Policy) |

All are welcome but to help us plan catering please email the HSE CHEMP Manager, Svetlana Sverchkova (s.sverchkova@hse.ru) to secure a place.

About CHEMP: <http://scem.spb.hse.ru/en/chemp/>

CHEMP: Making Health Economics happen in Russia.