Approved by Master Program's Academic Council on August 2, 2021

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. These Guidelines for Preparation and Defense of Term Papers and Theses (hereinafter, the Guidelines) have been prepared in line with the Regulations on Term Papers and Theses written by BA, Specialist and MA Students of the National Research University Higher School of Economics (hereinafter, the Regulations), approved by the HSE Academic Council (Minutes No. 08 dated November 28, 2014). As per the Regulations, these Guidelines shall be observed by the faculty and students of the 'Business and Politics in Modern Asia' programme (hereinafter, the Programme), as well as all persons involved in preparation and defense of the theses (including the Programme's Study Office staff, advisors, reviewers, etc.).

2. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THESES

- 2.1. The MA dissertation, or thesis, is a compulsory part of the curriculum of Master Program Business and Politics in Modern Asia and is the most important component of a research degree. In the MA program Business and Politics in Modern Asia students have to prepare MA Thesis in the form of research paper of publishable quality.
- 2.2. According to the Program's curriculum thesis submission falls on Module 4 during the 2nd year of study. The submission and defense of the thesis have a combined value of 24 ECTS.
- 2.3. The research area of each MA dissertation must be relevant to the corresponding degree program.
- 2.4. A MA dissertation is an independent work performed and written by the students of the Programme individually.
- 2.5. MA thesis should be a work of independent research reflecting one's ability:
  - identify a problem and research question,
  - design and successfully complete independent research project,
  - demonstrate knowledge of the relevant literature and ability to identify a conceptual framework for the research,
  - adequately apply research methods and techniques relevant to the research question and empirical data,
  - produce an academic English language text with appropriate structure,
  - present and discuss the research outcomes, their relevance for the advancement in the scholarship, and possible implications for non-academic spheres (where applicable).

3. STAGES OF MA thesis PREPARATION

3.1. Deadlines for completing the main stages of the topic selection and approval, as well as the preparation and defense of the MA thesis, are specified in Annex 1.

4. SELECTION AND APPROVAL OF MA thesis TOPICS

4.1. The faculty of the Department of Political Science and International Affairs and Department Asian and African Studies may develop a provisional list of term paper topics or research areas to be subsequently finalized by Academic Council of the Master Program.

4.2. HSE academic staff members (including those outside the Department of Department of Political Science and International Affairs and Department of Asian and African Studies) and potential employers may also propose topics and research areas to be added to the list

4.3. Proposals must be structured as follows:

- Topic or research area of the MA thesis;
- MA thesis supervisor (full name, position, academic degree, place of employment);
- Year of study for which the given topic or research area is intended.

4.4. The Program Office collects proposals (if any) for MA thesis topics or research areas and publishes the information along with the Guidelines for preparation and processing the MA thesis on the program website.

4.5. Students may propose a topic of their own or choose one of the topics from the list.

4.6. The supervisor of student's MA thesis may be either an HSE staff member (from any department and campus) or an academic from outside of HSE (for example, from the organization where student had the internship). In case student has an external supervisor HSE should appoint a curator from the HSE staff. One supervisor may supervise up to 5 MA thesis per academic year.

4.7. MA thesis topics must be downloaded by student in the LMS and be approved by the future supervisor. After it, the Program Academic Supervisor should also confirm the topic through LMS.

4.8. Confirmation from the supervisors must be submitted to the Program Office no later than November 8 of the current academic year.

4.9. The list of MA thesis topics and supervisors must be finalized by the Academic Council by November 15. Some MA thesis topics may be declined by the Academic Council if they are not suited to the field of study, purpose of a MA thesis or the level of complexity. In this case, the Academic Council must also provide a justification for its decision and recommendations on how to adjust the topic.

4.10. The Program Office must notify students and their supervisors if the MA thesis topic was declined within one business day from such decision.

4.11. Students may submit a new request for the MA thesis topic to the Programme Office. The Academic Council must approve the final list of MA thesis topics and supervisors no later than November 25.

4.12. Upon the approval of the chosen topic by the Academic Council of the Master's program, the program manager issues an order on the topic and supervisor for each student. The order is prepared no later than December 14 of the current academic year.

4.13. If students fail to choose a MA thesis topic by the deadline, or if their topic is declined by the Academic Council, they are facing academic failure. Such students may select their MA thesis topic during the extension period – from the start of the Module 3 to the end of the retake period for Modules 1 and 2. If the new topic is selected on time and approved by the Academic Council, academic failure is waived.

4.14. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that the thesis meets the standards described in Clause 1.3, and the duty of the supervisor and department to ensure that the student takes the necessary steps to meet these requirements. In case a thesis fails to meet the requirements, it may be returned to the author for revision and resubmission, or a failing grade can be awarded.
