Website link with the list of courses that are available for exchange students:

<https://www.zsem.hr/en/international/exchange/incoming-students/courses-and-schedule/>

Undergraduate students can only select undergraduate courses.

Graduate students may pick between undergraduate and graduate subjects/courses if their home institution agrees.

Please note that graduated courses have a special schedule:

a) Through the semester 1-3 intensive weeks per class.

b) The first semester of graduate courses starts on March and the second in September. (Mind this when you search courses in our MBA web-page: <http://mba.zsem.hr/>)

If the graduated students also selected undergraduate courses, he/she will need to attend classes all along through the semester and come at the beginning of the undergraduate semester (in February for the 2nd semester!).

International students who are able to attend courses in Croatian, see also:

TEMPORAL RESIDENCE PROCEDURES AND ASSISTANCE

In order to be able to study in Croatia the easiest way is to apply for a temporary residence permit and not for a visa. In order to apply students will need:

- 2 color photographs, 35 x 45 mm;
- copy of a valid travel document;
- proof of ensured dwelling;
- proof of ensured health insurance;
- proof of ensured means of subsistence in compliance with the Regulation on the method of calculation and amount of means of subsistence for aliens in the Republic of Croatia;
- proof of the reasons for temporary stay (Acceptance letter)

The mentioned documents should be translated into Croatian and delivered to a Croatian embassy.

ERASMUS students can do these procedures in Croatia, it is recommended for the rest to do it in their home countries.
