[Advice on choosing a program]

If studying Japanese is your main purpose, the JSP program may be the best option for you. Taking the Intensive Japanese Language Course (8 credits) is mandatory, however, you can still take other courses for more than 8 credits. Please be advised that since the Intensive Japanese Course runs 4 days a week in the morning (3 hours), there will be limited courses available.

English Track Program (E-Track) Regular Program

English-based degree program in two majors: "Business Economics" and "International Relations" (undergraduate). Students from more than 50 countries are currently studying in the E-track Program.

WEB: <https://www.tiu.ac.jp/etrack/>

[Japanese Language Course]

- 8-credit Intensive Course for beginner to intermediate
- 4-credit Regular Course for intermediate to advanced
- 2-credit Advanced Course

It is NOT mandatory to take Japanese Language Courses.

[Program Core]

Liberal Arts, Business Economics Major Course, International Relations Major Course, Japan Studies, and Japanese Language Courses are available.

※Maximum number of credits per semester is 20.

[Advice on choosing a program]

If you would like to study a bit of Japanese language or not study it at all and focus on more major courses, the E-Track Program may be the best option for you. Since the Intensive Japanese Course is not mandatory, there will be more availability in your course schedule when you choose courses.

[Requirements for JSP & E-Track]

■ English Proficiency: TOEFL iBT 79, IELTS 6.0 or equivalent to the previously mentioned scores.

■ GPA 2.5 or above
